THE EXCLUSIVE MICROBAN® SYSTEM

The use of antimicrobial technologies can help make products greener by protecting them against the damaging effects of bacteria, mold and mildew. Products that stay cleaner and fresher for longer reduce the environmental impact caused by more frequent cleaning and product replacement. Microban protection is registered with the EPA for all applications and Microban additives can be found in leading consumer and industrial products around the world. Microban is infused into our surfaces, providing you with continual assurance that all Luxury Bath Technologies products will remain mold and mildew resistant.

CLEANER. FRESHER. LONGER.

As seen in these microscopic images, Microban works on the surface, disrupting key bacterial cell functions so that the bacteria are unable to grow. On the unprotected surface, bacteria quickly multiply and grow.
